

23 July 2004

Curragh North mining lease

Wesfarmers has been granted a mining lease for the development of its Curragh North coal deposit, centred some 20 kilometres north of the existing Wesfarmers-owned Curragh mine in Queensland's Bowen Basin. This represents another important milestone for the Curragh North project. Work is continuing to complete detailed mine design and infrastructure plans, to obtain remaining regulatory approvals and to confirm marketing commitments from Curragh's existing customers.

For further information: David Robb, Managing Director, Wesfarmers Energy 0419 025 454

Keith Kessell, General Manager, Public Affairs
0419 949 082